By order of Governor,

Statement.

1. The donor or his heir or heirs shall have the right to nominate for admission into the College one poor student subject to the rules of the College. If in any year a deserving candidate is not available, no nomination for the free-studentship should be made for the year and the interest on the donation should continue to accumulate and should be utilised in future in awarding more than one free-studentship, if funds permit, subject to the approval of the donor or his heir or heirs. If necessary, the donor or his heir or heirs shall have the right to ask from the Principal of the Presidency College, Calcutta, a list of ten poor and meritorious students among the students, admitted by him, so that the donor or his heir or heirs may be in a position to make his or their own selection and inform the Principal accordingly. The Trust Fund shall be called the Bimala Churn Law Free-Studentship Fund. The Principal of the College should be the administrator of the fund who will draw interest on the notes regularly, open a post office savings bank account, deposit therein the income of the fund and credit to Government the amount payable by the holder or holders of the free-studentship or free-studentships.

2. The donor or his heir or heirs shall have the right to cancel the nomination of a candidate who has failed to pass any examination and to nominate a new candidate who may be found deserving of such free-studentship. The free-studentship shall entitle the holder thereof to exemption from payment of admission fee, tuition fee, annual atheletic subscription, annual magazine subscription, annual College Union subscription and annual periodical examination fee, but such exemption should be operative to the extent of the amount available as the net income of the fund.

3. The free-studentship should be named as Bimala Churn Law Free-Studentship and is open to all students without any distinction of caste, creed and sex.

4. The Principal of the College shall furnish the donor or his heir or heirs, with an annual report of the progress of study of the student concerned and the donor or his heir or heirs shall intimate to the Principal his or their intention of allowing the student to continue to hold the free-studentship, if the progress report be found satisfactory. In the event of the progress report being found unsatisfactory, the right of the donor or his heir or heirs shall be limited to withdrawing the free-studentship and shall not extend to prohibiting the holder of the free-studentship from prosecuting his studies.

5. The said free-studentship will be awarded for one year in the first instance, and will be continued unless for unsatisfactory progress or otherwise the concession is withdrawn. No second free-studentship will be awarded while one is already in existence or until sufficient surplus is available for the creation of additional free-studentships.

NOTICE.

1. With reference to the Bengal Civil Service (Judicial) Recruitment Rules, 1941, published in the "Calcutta Gazette" of the 12th June 1941, it is hereby notified that four appointments to the Service will be made during the year 1943. In accordance with the Bengal Services Recruitment (Communal Ratio) Rules, 1940, these four appointments have already been reserved for members of the Scheduled Caste Community.

2. As the quota fixed for Assam has already been filled, there will be no recruitment of any candidate from Assam to any of these four posts.

3. In general relaxation of rule 5 of the Standard of Qualification Rules, candidates whose age did not exceed 33 years on the 1st January 1943, are hereby permitted to apply and they need not apply to the Government for condonation of age. Condonation of age already granted by Government in the cases of candidates of the said community at the time of the last advertisement will still hold good.

4. Persons eligible under the Rules who may wish to apply should submit their applications in the prescribed form, copies of which may be obtained from the Secretary, Public Service Commission, Bengal, Secretariat Building, Darjeeling, personally or on sending an addressed envelope with a nine pies stamp. The applications must reach the Secretary, complete with necessary certificates, treasury chalan, etc, not later than the 9th August 1943.

5. A number of candidates considered prima facie suitable will be called upon to appear before a Medical Board for a certificate of their fitness for Government service in Form A of Schedule IV of the Bengal Provincial Services Recruitment Rules; an order to appear before the Medical Board must not, however, be understood to mean that the candidate, if found fit, will necessarily receive an appointment as the number of candidates who will be summoned for medical examination will be in excess of the total number of vacancies and the question of his appointment will depend upon the results of the medical examination taken as a whole; intending candidates are advised before they apply for recruitment to the service to satisfy themselves that they are likely to qualify as physically fit, for experience has shown that a considerable number of the candidates are rejected by the Medical Board as unfit.

Dan-nadīr Gati-pathe. [And Quiet Flows the Don.] A free Bengali rendering of a book entitled "And Quiet Flows the Don" which is an English rendering of the original work entitled "Tikhi Don" by the Russian author Sholokov. Gives an idea of the varied life of the Cossacks, a brave, warlike, freedom-loving and apparently a little less-cultured people of Russia inhabiting the region of the river Don, before, during and after the Soviet revolution. In the four different parts of the book an attempt has been made to portray the life of the Cossacks in times of peace, their activities and political outlook during the revolutionary war of 1917 in which the Bolshevists wanted to win them over to their side by propaganda work of impressing upon them the evils of the Tsarist regime and making them realise that they would be acting against their own interests by fighting for the Tsar, their inability to appreciate for the time being the Bolshevik ideals and principles which they fought shy of even after the revolution, and their difficulty of seeing through the fag of cross propaganda work of both the parties, viz., the Bolshevists and the Tsarists which resulted in their growing distrust of both the parties but particularly the Bolshevists whom they held liable for continuous bloodshed leading to possible civil war and punished with merciless ferocity for some time prior to the establishment of the Soviet Government. 161. Sarasilal Sarkar.—রবীন্দ্র-কাব্যে ত্রয়ী পরিকল্পনা— Rabīndra-Kābye Trayī Parikalpanā. [Conception of trio in Rabindra's poetry.] A subjective study of the peotry of Rabindranath, maintaining that many of his poems disclose a certain characteristic, a peculiarity, in the existence of three factors, viz., Tāl (cadence), Gān (song) and Gati (movement) in a certain order, although the order is sometimes seen to be varied to suit expression of violent or opposing feelings. This peculiarity is said to be a symbolism of a concept deep in the poet's mind although the poet himself may or may not be conscious of it according as the expression is prompted by the preconscious or subconscious state of his mind. There is also the suggestion that the element of "latent content" which springing as it does from the subconscious mind, escapes the poet's conscious mind and constitutes by far the most dynamic force of his creative genius. The appendix points out that poetry is not the only field where the poet exhibits the above peculiarity, as there are prose pieces and prose verse also which express the same characteristics. Published by Kanailal Sarkar, 177, Upper Circular Road, Calcutta. 1348 sāl or 1941-42 A.D. (14-10-1941.) Pages 128. Double Crown 16mo. 1st edition. Re. 1-0-0. Copies 1,000.

Though the plot is taken from the Ramayana, the ideas are mostly Western. These are said to have given the poem an un-Hindu character; nevertheless, the poem is very popular with all classes of the educated Bengalees. It is held by some critics that the poem is an allegory and that the event of the cold-blooded murder of Meghnad by Lakshan represents the murder of Sirajuddaulah by Miran. First published in 1861. The present edition is reprinted from the 6th edition published in 1869. Contains besides the text with simple annotation, two introductions, different readings between the 1st and the 2nd editions and meanings of a list of difficult words and phrases in the appendix. Sobhiyet-Sabhyatā. Pratham Bhāg. [Soviet Civilization. Part I.] Said to be completed in two parts. The present volume is the first part and attempts to offer a brief survey of the U. S. S. R. in its different aspects, by dwelling on, among other things, the Revolution of 1917 with its success and far-reaching effect of a complete change of the old order, the formation of the Soviet Union, with its outstanding characteristics, the Soviet Government, the constitution of the Red Army, the military strength of the Soviet, its foreign policy and tactics, its uplifting activities in the mid-Asiatic provinces, its adventure in the North Pole and its programme of activities in the polar region in order to transform the forbidding and inhospitable land into a human habitation with very useful and manifold yielding capacity, and the development of socialism in the final chapter, with its extraordinary economic, industrial and agricultural upheaval brought about in the successive "Five-year" plans. Published by Praphullakumar Ray, Agrani Book Club, 7-B, Jugipara Bye Lane, Calcutta. 1941. (21-10-1941.) Pages 3+164. Double Demy 16mo. 1st edition. Rs. 2-0-0. Copies 1,100.

267. Ramani Chakrabarti.—নভেম্বর বিপ্লব—
Nabhembar Biplab. [November Revolution.] The first pamphlet of the Yuga-Sāhitya (Radical Literature) series refers in appreciable terms, to the well-known November Revolution which ushered in the Soviet regime in the wake of a bloody war unlike what is now raging. Points out the danger which now faces the Soviet Union which is said to have overthrown imperialism, to have inspired the oppressed humanity of the entire world with the spirit of revolution and to have worked wonders in the field of education, arts, industry, civilization and culture. Also says that India is bound to be a passive sympathiser of the Soviet in her trials because of her subjection, and that for India independence means the establishment of socialism through which alone real help can be given to Russia in her present needs, in view of the alleged slothful and delatory tactics in which English and American help is being reached to her. Ends with an appeal to all political parties to unite against fascism and imperialism. Published by the printer, 10, Cornwallis Street, Calcutta. (15-9-1941.) Pages 2+5. Double Crown 16mo. 1st edition. Re. 0-1-0. Copies 500.

334. Kalidas Nag, M.A. (Cal.), D.Litt. (Paris).—India and the Pacific World. Based on a paper headed "India in Asiatic Pre-history" which the author was to read as a member-delegate, in the International Congress of Anthropology and Pre-historic Archaeology, at Istambul in September, 1939, but was prevented from doing so by the sudden outbreak of the present War. It presents a critical and well-supported study of the cultural expansion and migration in ancient times, in the Pacific world comprising the island groups now known as Indonesia, Micronesia, Melanesia and Polynesia, and also the regions lying about the Pacific Ocean, e.g., Thailand, Indo-China, China and Japan. It takes into consideration the various cultural materials including ethnological, archaeological and philological data obtainable in the pre-historic or proto-historic times in order to trace how and whence culture and civilization flowed into these parts of the world. One chapter particularly deals with the ancient culture of Polynesia and gives a brief summary of the views of Dr. E. S. Craighill Handy of the Bishop Museum of Hawaii, a great authority and research-worker, expressed in his articles contributed to "Man-in-India" in which he stresses on the cultural relationship between India and Polynesia and on the necessity of studying the culture of the outlying regions beyond the limits of Polynesia for a proper appreciation of Polynesian culture. Published by Girindra Nath Mitra under the auspices of the Greater India Society Book Company, 4-3B, College Square, Calcutta. (23-9-1941.) Pages 9+294+1 map. Double Crown 8vo. 1st edition. 515. Shahid Pravin.—Must we Fight. A study of those psychological differences that are looming large over the present war-issue, in the Indian National life at the critical moment when Indian frontiers are being threatened by the enemy. The author begins with a survey of the events since 1934, leading to the declaration of the war by the Allied Powers against Germany and her atrocities committed on the oppressed nations, to the signing of the Russo-German non-aggression pact of 1939 and the outbreak of the present Russo-German war. Deals with the Fascist War technique based on secret deliberate plan resulting in Hitler's Series of campaigns. Opines that we should guard against the possibility of a slackening of the war efforts of our country, England, Dominions and America in our conflict with the Axis Powers. He criticizes the widespread notion that the war is being fought on imperialistic aims finding support from the Congressites, the Leaguites and the Mahasabhaites and points out that this war is our own. An attempt has been made to help in finding out a solution to the Hindu-Muslim tension, one of the most vexatious problems affecting India today when Democracy is fighting Fascism-cum-Nazism. Both the Congress and the League should at once declare national defences as the immediate object of the nation so that the communal wranglings will be put to a stop at once. He concludes with showing that our present task is to participate in the war and combat Nazi menace by instituting Civic Guards organisations throughout the country. Pages 1+176. Published by M. P. G. Menon for Pravin Publication, 2-15, Kankulia Road, Calcutta. (4-9-1941.) Pages 1+176. Crown 8vo. 1st edition. Re. 0-12-0. Copies 2,000.

Governor,

ernor.

P. S., Hooghly district. At 01:30 hours a gang of dacoits attacked a house in this village. Hearing an uproar the constable led 3 others, armed with loaded muskets and fixed bayonets, to the house where they were attacked by the dacoits. The police party opened fire and two dacoits were hit but ran away. Constable Bhuneswar Singh entered the house alone and attacked with the butt-end of his musket several dacoits who were assaulting the owner of the house and his wife. One dacoit was arrested, and the rest fled. The constable gave chase and seized another, who attacked and injured him with a sword stick. He managed, however, to arrest the miscreant, who turned out to be the leader of the gang and a notorious criminal. The intervention by this police party led by constable Bhuneswar Singh resulted in the arrest of 13 persons, including 5 receivers of stolen property, and in the recovery of a large amount of such property. His personal courage and leadership saved the inhabitants of the house from serious injury and possible death, and effectively broke up a dangerous gang of criminals.

This award is made for gallantry under regulation 6(a) of the Regulations governing the grant

Report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Public Gambling (Amendment) Bill, 1940.

(AS INTRODUCED IN THE COUNCIL BY MR. NUR AHMED, M.L.C.)

We, the members of the Select Committee to which the Bengal Public Gambling (Amendment) Bill, 1940, was referred by a motion carried in the Council on the 22nd August, 1941, have the honour to submit this our final report with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by us. 3. The Bill has not been altered by our recommendation to an extent requiring republication.

Long title and preamble.—We have made some drafting changes in the long title and preamble of the Bill.

Clause 1.—We have changed the year in the title of the Bill and have added a marginal note.

Clause 2.—We have omitted this clause as otherwise lottery, which is not under the scope of the Act, would in some form come under the scope of the Bill.

Clauses 3 and 4.—We have redrafted these clauses and have included the playing of any game of mixed skill and chance in any place of public amusement as defined in clause 3 of section 2 of the Bengal Places of Public Amusement Act, 1933, in the definition of "gaming" to make the playing of any such games in any place of public amusement punishable under this Act.

Clause 5.—We have redrafted this clause to make it in keeping with the Calcutta Police Act, 1866, and the Howrah Offences Act, 1857.

Clause 6.—We have made only some necessary drafting changes.

Clause 7.—We have made only some slight drafting changes in this clause.

Clause 8.—We have omitted this clause.

Clause 9.—We have omitted this clause as the provisions regarding games of chance and skill combined sought to be made by this clause have already been made in the redrafted clause 3 of the Bill.

Clause 11.—We have redrafted this clause in view of the changes made in clause 5 of the Bill.

With the coming into force of the Bengal Jute Regulation Act, 1940, the area shown represents the licensed acreage which will require modifications in the ensuing final forecast in September next when the examination of Jute lands under section 14 of the Act is completed.

Area in 1943.—In Bengal excluding Cooch Behar and Tripura States the returns for the licensed acreage show a total of 2,559,025 acres as against 2,704,075 acres (revised) last year with certain modifications as shown in the Final Forecast, 1942. It is reported that a considerable portion of the aforesaid licensed areas has been put under Aus Paddy instead of Jute. The areas reported by the States of Cooch Behar and Tripura are 23,720 and 12,000 acres respectively against 36,880 and 15,000 acres last year.

Character of the season.—The season opened with good rainfall and the preparation of low and midlands in East and North Bengal was almost completed by the end of March. Sowings commenced in normal time and under favourable weather conditions. In some West Bengal districts, however, the weather at the outset was hot and dry. The growth of the plants was retarded in a number of North Bengal districts due to excessive rain; while, on the other hand, a spell of prolonged drought in May caused some damage in certain East and West Bengal districts. Monsoon showers since the last week of May have, however, improved the prospects and the crop has been making satisfactory progress. A spell of sunny weather would now be most beneficial for the crop.

Present state of the crop.—The condition of the crop is generally promising and it is in a thriving condition.

Stock.—There is no considerable stock in the hands of cultivators.

M. CARBERY,
Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

Calcutta, the 16th July 1943.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BIHAR.

PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE JUTE CROP OF BIHAR, 1943.

[NOTE. On an average of the five years ending 1940-41, the area under Jute in Bihar to which this forecast relates has represented some 10·0 per cent. of the total area under Jute in India.]

The present forecast deals only with the estimated area sown. It gives also a general survey of prospects but makes no reference to the probable outturn either in percentage figures or in bales.

Acreage.—I estimate the area sown during the current and four preceding years, in round numbers, as follows:—

Year.	Acres.
1939	265,500*
1940	282,200
1941	242,500
1942	232,900
1943	202,300

*Revised.

Weather conditions.—In March very light rain fell in parts of Purnea and the Santal Parganas and there was no rain in the rest of the jute-growing districts. The rainfall in April, however, was sufficient and above the normal everywhere. In May again below-the-normal rain fell in all the jute-growing districts except Purnea where the fall was slightly above the normal. The weather conditions were generally favourable and the sowings began at the normal times.

District returns.—Last year's area under jute was finally estimated at 232,900 acres. The total area under jute this year is estimated by the District Officers in round figures at 202,300 acres. The decrease in area is due mainly to greater areas having been put under food crops in Purnea.

Condition and prospects.—The present condition of the crop particularly in the low lands of the main jute-growing district of Purnea has been rendered unsatisfactory by the recent untimely heavy rainfall.

General.—The quantity of jute which remains in the province from the crops of 1942 is reported to be much due to transport difficulties in the main jute-growing district of Purnea.

The statement below compares the estimated area under jute in this province this year with the preliminary and final figures of last year:—

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, ASSAM.

PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE JUTE CROP OF ASSAM, 1943.

[NOTE.—On the average of the five years ending 1940-41 the area under jute in Assam has represented some 7·6 per cent. of the total area under jute in India.]

Season.—Weather was favourable for the cultivation and growth of the crop in the districts of Cachar, Sylhet, Sibsagar and Garo Hills, and unfavourable in the other districts. In Goalpara continuous and heavy rain damaged the crop to a very great extent; and constant rainfall interfered with weeding operations in some districts. The present condition of the crop is good in Sylhet, Cachar, Sibsagar and Garo Hills, and "not good" in others.

Area sown.—The total area under jute as estimated by the Deputy Commissioners is 174,559 acres against 284,400 acres (revised) of last year. The decrease in area is due to (i) cultivation of more food crops, (ii) low price of jute, and (iii) unfavourable weather in some districts.

Stock.—According to the reports of the Deputy Commissioners little jute remains in stock from last year's crop.

Sylhet ..	40,200	64,900	28,000	..	36,900	Nil ..	Ditto . Notices.

3. If in any case the District Health Officer considers that the issue of a notice under these regulations is likely to lead to such an amount of delay as might facilitate the spread of cholera he

(2) The Board may recover all expenses incurred by the District Health Officer in carrying out the measure under regulation 4 from the person or persons to whom the notice was originally issued.

On complying with this requirement, the candidates will receive from the Secretary a time table for the examination The examination will be held in two centres, viz., Calcutta and Dacca, if sufficient candidates are forthcoming. The candidates should clearly mention in their application forms the centre where they wish to sit. The dates and place of the examination will be communicated to the candidates separately.

As the possession of a knowledge of a provincial vernacular is an essential condition of appointment candidates, whose ordinary spoken and written language is not Bengali, must take up translation from English into one of the provincial vernaculars named below:—

(i) Bengali,
(ii) Hindi,
(iii) Urdu,
(iv) Nepali,

and vice versa in the compulsory paper. Successful candidates, however, who have offered any language other than Bengali in that paper and are appointed to a service for which there is a Departmental Examination, will be required to pass completely the Departmental Examinations in Bengali within two years of the date of their appointment to the service.

13. Medical Examination.—As soon as the results of the examinations are ready, a proportion of the candidates who have qualified will be called upon to appear before a Medical Board for a certificate of their fitness for Government service in form A of Schedule IV of the Bengal Provincial Services Recruitment Rules. An order to appear before the Medical Board must not however be understood to mean that the candidate, if found fit, will necessarily receive an appointment as the number of candidates who will be summoned for medical examination will be slightly in excess of the total number of vacancies, and the question of his appointment will depend upon the results of the medical examination taken as a whole. Regulations governing the physical examination of candidates are set forth in Schedule IV of the Bengal Provincial Services Recruitment Rules and intending candidates are advised before they apply for admission to the examination to satisfy themselves that they are likely to qualify as physically fit under those regulations, for experience has shown that a considerable number of the candidates at the competitive examinations are subsequently rejected by the Medical Board as unfit.

14. Availability of old question paper.—These question papers may be purchased from the Publication Branch, Bengal Government Press, Alipore, or from Cash Sales Office, Writers' Buildings, Calcutta, at Re. 1 for a complete set of questions for one year.
